didn't shut that off, and, as it came out, the American eagle would have been up and down and his spirit would be.

DEATH OF MAJ. LEONARD.—The Galena newspaper the death of Major Thomas C. of Galena, who died at that place, on Wednesday these weeks. Major L. was an old and most esteemed citizen. He was a subscriber to the Star Register and was, in 1872, the deceased under the U.S. army, and was with Gen. Scott in Mexico, and as an Indian in Louisiana, and lived 62 years.

Resolved, That we are opposed to any alteration of the naturalization laws of the United States requiring a longer residence than is now required, believing that for any foreigner to be admitted to citizenship for any longer term is denoting a recognition of the United States as a nation of aliens and foreigners.

Resolved, That we are opposed to any act or law that would deprive the colored people of the United States, relative to the exercise of the elective franchise, that would deprive that portion of our population of the Privileges which have been guaranteed them by the Constitution of the United States.

And their residence, from the fall and due enjoyment of that right, in common with native American citizens.

Some persons left the Springfield Police Office, a letter related to us, "Globe Register," and mailed "2 cts." showing that it did not come by mail, upon opening which we found that it pertained to the proceedings of a public meeting held in Africa last night on the second day of the month of January. In the absence of the meeting, we are supposed to be Mr. "John F. Ford" we cannot state as to what has justlyly ascertained.

NOTES IN ENGLISH.—Among the new exported largely in English clothes, (which are carried in hundreds of horse-drawn carts), hats, umbrellas, and cutlery. The things we supply the English with are thousands of articles they make cheaper than we do. We have made rubbers, or cutlery, except as they have imported articles from this country, and then proved unable to use them. Such
